

Tammie Rhodes Biography

Tammie Rhodes is the Managing Director of Asset and Property Management at Grubb Ventures. She leads operations for the property management and asset management division of the multifamily and commercial divisions. Tammie has over 25 years of real estate management experience with all asset classes, including conventional multifamily, commercial, industrial, warehouse, mixed use, HOA, condominium conversions, and sales. A licensed real estate broker and broker in charge in North Carolina, Tammie is also a Certified Property Manager candidate through the Institute of Real Estate Management (IREM) and holds the Certified Apartment Property Supervisor and Certified Apartment Manager designations through the National Apartment Association (NAA). She is a member of IREM, NAA, and the Triangle Apartment Association, and is a graduate of NC State University.