

Todd Whitlow is a partner with Brownlee Whitlow & Praet, PLLC, where he has represented members of the Apartment Association for over a decade in a wide variety of matters impacting the multi-family industry. He is licensed to practice in North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia. Todd serves on the NAAEI Curriculum Development Committee and NAA Legislative Committees while also serving as a faculty member of NAAEI. Todd is heavily involved in the multi-family industry serving on various boards and committees with affiliates in North Carolina and South Carolina and serves as General Counsel to the South Carolina Apartment Association.